

ANZELA (VICTORIAN CHAPTER)

Would you like assistance to attend the 2014 conference in Adelaide, South Australia?

The ANZELA 23rd Annual Conference theme is "Walking the tightrope – getting the balance right" and is being held in Adelaide, South Australia on 1-3 October 2014.

The Victorian Chapter committee is offering three awards of assistance to members of our chapter. These awards will cover the cost of registration to attend the conference.

To make an application, please submit a short statement on how you could offer to support ANZELA, and Victorian Chapter members, with their professional learning.

The focus of your support should be linked to the philosophy and objectives of the association which include:

- Promote and encourage research, study, discussion writing and/or dissemination of information about issues on laws relating to education;
- Organise and stimulate participation in conferences and meetings on the laws relating to education;
- Promote the publication of articles, newsletters, journals and other literature for the purpose of these objectives;
- Co-operate and exchange information with organisations and individuals, on the laws relating to education;
- Develop policies on the laws relating to education.

For more information about the conference see www.anzela.edu.au

Applications close on July 31 2014. Please forward applications to
