

ANZELA

Legal Studies Teachers' Conference

Parliament House
Alice Street, Brisbane
Undumbi Room (Level 5)
Friday 10 May 2019

8.00 am – 3.10 pm

Conference Outline
8:00 am to 8:45 am	Registration and tea/coffee
8:15 am to 8:45 am	Parliament House Tour conducted by Brett Nutley
	Networking opportunity for discussion on new syllabus
8:45 am to 8:50 am	Welcome to country - Acknowledgment of Traditional Owners. Brett Nutley – Indigenous Liaison Officer, Community Engagement Services, Queensland Parliamentary Service
8:50 am to 9:00 am	Welcome Hon Curtis Pitt MP Speaker of the House Overview of the day and Introduction to Keynote Speaker Ms Lisa Walker President of Qld Chapter, ANZELA
9:00 am to 9.55 am	Keynote address Magistrate Jacqueline Payne Criminal Law Criminal Investigation and Trial Process – some focus on trends including mental health elements, young people and marginalised or minority groups.
10:00 am to 10.10 am	Supreme Court Library Programs available which are relevant to the new 2019 Legal Studies syllabus. Kirsten Murray Community Education Co-ordinator Supreme Court Library Queensland

10:15 am to 10.40 am	MORNING TEA
10.45 am to 11.00am	USQ High School Mooting Competition for QLD students Anton Le-Vin Law Lecturer and Advocacy Coordinator at the USQ School of Law and Justice University of Southern Queensland
11:00 am to 11:50 am	Criminal Law John Robertson Queensland Sentencing and Advisory Council (Chairman) Ex District Court Judge Punishment and Sentencing – current issues, changes, trends and controversies.
11:50 am to 12:40 pm	Human Rights Deborah Keenan, Director of Complaint Services, Anti-Discrimination Commission Queensland
12:40 pm to 1:20 pm	LUNCH
1:20 pm to 2.10 pm	Balance of Probabilities Centred around Sports and the law, the presentation will include issues on Contracts, Civil cases, Privacy, Sports in the media, Gender related issues, and developments. Andy Gibson Life Member and Academic ANZSLA Australia and New Zealand Sports Law Association
2.10 pm to 3.00 pm	QCAA New Syllabus development, Assessment and Endorsement
3.00 pm to 3:10 pm	Closing Information on ANZELA membership can be accessed on www.anzela.edu.au