This event, now in its fourth year, aims to brief teachers of Legal Studies on updates to the law relevant to the curriculum, and discuss topical legal issues and resources that can be used in the classroom. While primarily aimed at such teachers, all interested persons are welcome.

The cost includes tea/coffee on arrival, morning tea and lunch. The final program and registration forms will be available on the ANZELA website shortly: www.anzela.edu.au/events
