Contents

EDITORIAL ................................................................................................................................................. 3

ARTICLES

The Origins and Development of Education Law as a Separate Field of Law in the United States and Australia
Ralph D. Mawdsley & J. Joy Cumming ................................................................. 7

A School’s Duty to Provide a Safe Learning Environment: Does this Include Cyberbullying?
Marilyn Campbell, Des Butler & Sally Kift ............................................................ 21

Teachers’ Policy-Based Duties to Report Child Sexual Abuse: A Comparative Study
Ben Mathews, Jane Cronan, Kerryann Walsh, Ann Farrell & Des Butler ................. 33

The Inclusion and Exclusion of Students with Disability Related Problem Behaviour: The Contrasting Approaches of Australia and the United States of America
Elizabeth Dickson ........................................................................................................... 49

Garcetti v Ceballos: Balancing Employee Free Speech with Efficient Operation of Schools in the United States of America
Ralph D. Mawdsley ..................................................................................................... 65

Constitutional Challenge to Freedom of Religion in Schools in Malaysia
Tie Fatt Hee ...................................................................................................................... 89

Commonwealth Controls Over Australian Schools, TAFEs and Universities Via Tied Funding: Time for Constitutional Reform?
Jim Jackson ....................................................................................................................... 101