

ANZELA MINI-CONFERENCE

Tirohanga manu – bird’s eye view of the future of education and law

Monday 6 September 2021 | Rydges Wellington

We lost our conference last year to Covid 19. This year we offer you a one-day mini-conference and the chance to explore, debate and discuss emerging issues in the education law arena.

The programme will include sessions on:

- Responses to the problem of contract cheating
- Learning from being the largest educational Covid 19 cluster in the 2020 pandemic – and the legal ramifications of this
- Tikanga Māori and the design of alternative dispute resolution processes
- Working with parents in conflict with the school: strategies for de-escalating concerns and complaints
- Under the radar: the principals’ stories
- Members’ Forum: Future developments for ANZELA in NZ

To register, please complete the form below and email it to jane.battersby@xtra.co.nz

Make your payment to ANZELA Inc. Account number 01-0102-0051482-00. Please note your surname on the payment. A receipt will be sent to you.

Fee (incl GST)

Earlybird (pay by 6 August)    Members: $280

Non-members: $320

After 6 August                    Members: $300

Non-members: $340

Name:

Organisation:

Email address:

Phone number:

Payment being made:

Contact:

Jane Battersby, ANZELA Secretary Treasurer – jane.battersby@xtra.co.nz

Phone: 021 067 4247